The No.12 Policy provides industry-leading coverage for trucking, logistics, UPS, and USPS employees. The maximum days increase on a yearly basis from 180 days in the 1st year to 365, after 5 years and 1 day. You choose the amount of coverage to insure, at a reasonable price, assured that your family will receive robust coverage at a great value.

In part, that is because LECMPA is a member-owned mutual protective association, not organized for profit. This means we answer to our members, not shareholders. Enjoy the peace of mind that comes with knowing you belong to an association made up of union transportation workers from every craft and trade who value our mission and your financial well-being.

At LECMPA, we always endeavor to provide our members the benefit of the doubt. Our experienced claims adjudicators evaluate each claim individually on its own merits. Seasoned experts review the entire record and carefully consider all the facts. The cause of discipline does not automatically preclude a review.
